

Hanover Couple Killed When Struck By Countian's Car. At 9 O'clock Saturday Evening; Driver Under Bond Of $1,000

Donald W. Miller, 22, Littlestown R. 2, is free under $1,000 bail today on a charge of involuntary manslaughter placed by state police before Justice of the Peace John Basehore after his car struck and fatally injured two Hanover residents Saturday night.

The accident occurred about four miles east of here on the Lincoln highway near Lincoln Logs Inn, at 9 o'clock.

The two victims, Raymond Sidney Smith, 38, Hanover hotel, Hanover, and Miss Bruce Irene Shriner, 38, Bair avenue extended, Hanover, were walking across the road from south to north when struck by the Miller car.

Miller told police he was traveling west, from New Oxford toward Gettysburg, when the crash occurred. He said that he first saw the two people running across the highway, apparently attempting to avoid a car which was also headed west and passing Miller in the center lane of the highway.

Shoes Were Knocked Off

Miller said he stepped on his brakes and tried to drive toward the center lane as much as possible to avoid hitting them, but the right front of his car struck the couple.

Both were apparently thrown across the hood, one striking the windshield. Their shoes were knocked off and the two were carried about 50 feet before they slid off the car to the road, police said.

Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, said death was instantaneous. Both had fractured skulls, fractures of the neck and jaw, and internal injuries. Smith had compound fractures of both legs. Miss Shriner's legs were severed below the knees.

William Hayden Pierce, 24, of West Middle street, a passenger in the Miller car, suffered a laceration of the nose. Damage to the Miller car was estimated at between $250 and $300.

Services Wednesday

Miss Shriner was born in Frederick county, Md., a daughter of the late Cornelius and Fannie May Forney Shriner. Surviving are the following brothers and sisters: Harry Shriner, Thurmont; Mrs. David Turner, Frederick; Carl Shriner, Thurmont R. 1; Maurice Shriner, Thurmont, and Manuel Shriner, Mt. Savage. Funeral services from the Creager funeral home Wednesday, with interment in the United Brethren cemetery at Thurmont.

Two Killed 11 Are Injured, 11 Will Be Arrested In Thirteen Mishaps Near Here In 2 Days

Two persons were killed, 11 others injured and charges filed against 11 motorists as the result of 13 accidents during the worst traffic-accident week-end in several years on the highways of Adams county. It brought to five the number of persons killed thus far this year in the county.

Raymond Sidney Smith, 38, and Miss Bruce Irene Shriner, 38, both of Hanover, were killed instantly when struck by a car crossing the Lincoln highway four miles east of Gettysburg Saturday night.

In another accident the most seriously injured was John E. Lemon, 49, of Gettysburg R. 4. He suffered a laceration of the forehead, concussion, contusions of the chest and shock when his automobile swerved to the left on the Emmitsburg road two and a half miles south of Gettysburg at 7:05 o'clock Sunday night and struck a truck operated by Alexander Hahn, 42, of St. Louis.

Removed To Hospital

His wife, Catherine Lemon, 45, received a contusion of the left cheek, severe laceration of the left leg and abrasions of the chin. They were brought to the Warner hospital. Damage to Lemon's car was estimated at $650 and to the truck at $200.

Merle L. McMaster, 26, of 645 East Middle street, Hanover, suffered a lacerated chin and bush burns of the forehead and left hand at 10:10 o'clock Saturday night in Abbotstown.

McMaster's car, according to state police of the Gettysburg substation, was struck by an automobile driven by Earl E. Alwine, 39, of Abbotstown. Police said both cars were traveling west, Alwine was passing the McMaster car to turn left into a gasoline station, sidwiped the McMaster car and struck a pole.

$1,400 In Damages

McMaster was treated by Dr. Leon Roos, East Berlin. Damage to his car was estimated at $1,000 and to the Alwine car at $300. The damage

Local Youth Is Reported Missing

State police of the Gettysburg substation this morning put out a general eight-state broadcast in an effort to locate Arthur Buehler, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Buehler, Gettysburg R. 1, Baltimore road, reported missing since Friday.

Buehler, state police said, borrowed a jeep belonging to a brother-in-law. Later he returned the jeep and took an army truck, also owned by his brother-in-law. He was seen Sunday afternoon about 1:30 o'clock near Weaver's dairy, state police said. Buehler is a student at Gettysburg high school.

DP FAMILY OF 3 IS ENROUTE TO NEW OXFORD

Weronika Pelikan a 7-year-old girl who has never known a real home, is at last on her way to one in New Oxford, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Iwan Pelikan, from Bremerhaven, Germany. The small refugee family is now on board an International Refugee Organization ship, scheduled to dock in New York on Thursday.

The family has been sponsored for immigration by W. D. Himes, of New Oxford, in cooperation with the United Ukrainian American Relief Committee.

Weronika's parents had both been born in Poland and had met after they were brought as slave laborers to Austria. After liberation, they were given the protection of the IRO and lived in the St. Martin DP camp in Austria.

Iwan Pelikan, who had worked as a shoemaker in Poland, continued his trade in the DP camp and also was appointed barrack leader.

In New Oxford, Pelikan will work again as a shoemaker and Mrs. Pelikan as a domestic.

The family is being supplied with free ocean transportation by the IRO which, since July, 1947, has found new homes throughout the world for 933,783 refugee-immigrants.

MRS. HARTZELL EXPIRES AT 79

Mrs. Eulalia Charity Hartzell, 79, widow of George William Hartzell, died Saturday at 5:50 p.m. at her home in Bendersville from a complication of diseases.

She was born and lived in York Springs until three and one-half years ago, a daughter of the late Samuel T. and Melissa (Hamilton) Beitman. For the last three and one-half years she resided with her sister, Miss Faith Beitman. The deceased was a former school teacher.

Surviving are a brother, Thomas H. Beitman, Philadelphia, and her sister, Miss Beitman. A number of nephews and nieces also survive. Funeral services Tuesday at 2 p.m. from the Pittenturf funeral home, York Springs, conducted by the Rev. Amos Meyers. Interment in Sunnyside cemetery, York Springs.

Dr. Hanson Speaks At Valley Forge

Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president of Gettysburg college, said Sunday in Wayne that "we live in an age that is sensitive, bruised and bewildered" and that our greatest problem today was the "remodel education so that our students will become explorers and builders in government."

Speaking to the cadets of Valley Forge Military academy at services in the academy chapel, Dr. Hanson said the greatest hope of emerging from quandary lies within our youth. He said we must build a generation big enough, heroic enough and devoted enough to "get out from under the great load as our forefathers did."

Another Farm Sold By Attorney Bigham

The former Lawrence Pidler farm of 95 acres in Butler township, near Twin Bridges, has been sold by Attorney Franklin Bigham to George and Roseann Montgomery, of Philadelphia. Possession will be given July 1.

The farm was the first one bought by the local attorney in a major purchase of county farms for an unnamed concern. He paid $8,750 for the farm about a year ago, and it was sold to the Montgomerys for $7,250. The sale was made through C. A. Heiges and Son.

BISHOP HERE TO CONFIRM 11

"We must return to a God-centered life—instead of a man-centered life," said the Rt. Rev. John Thomas Heistand, bishop of Harrisburg, in his sermon at Prince of Peace Episcopal church Sunday evening.

"Thinking people have recognized that there must be a greater reliance in God and God's plan for man than in the man-made solutions for the world's problems, but if the lessons of history mean anything, it may take 25 years for this to filter down to the level of the common man," the speaker asserted. He observed that the struggle today is not between Russia and the United States but between the forces of religion and secular materialism and this struggle "begins here at home."

The bishop confirmed 11 persons presented to him by the Rev. Willis R. Doyle, vicar of the local parish. They were Robert, Rebecca and Betty Lou Bondurant, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian H. Feikert, L. Watson Sadler, Mrs. C. B. Spicer, Jr., Mrs. Conway Williams, Miss Mary C. Shoff, Miss Ruby Lord and Mrs. Colleen Marie Lowe.

About 70 persons attended a reception for the bishop and the newly confirmed, held in the parish house immediately following the service. Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler and Mrs. Millard Shoff poured. They are the presidents respectively of the Gettysburg and Hanover branches of the Women's Auxiliary of Prince of Peace congregation.

Week-end Visitors Curbed By Weather

Inclement weather most of Sunday reduced the total week-end visitation in Gettysburg and over the battlefield, but the Saturday and Sunday figures still totaled close to 5,000 tourists.

There were 67 guided trips on Saturday and 78 on Sunday. In addition, two buses brought 44 here Saturday and five more buses on Sunday raised the total by 145.

The estimated number of tourists on Saturday was 2,188 and on Sunday, 2,496, or a week-end total of 4,682.

During the week beginning April 16 and closing April 22 a total of 48 buses visited the battlefield.

SHOTGUN CASE IS ON TRIAL IN COUNTY COURT

Fred Wright was found guilty by the jury at 2 o'clock this afternoon after deliberation of 20 minutes.

An Adams county jury this afternoon was to determine whether Fred Wright, Aspers R. D., "stuck a gun in the stomach" of his neighbor, George Sandoe.

Wright is charged with pointing a gun. Sandoe told the jury this morning that Wright's wife came running to the Sandoe home at 4 o'clock on the morning of November 30, 1950. He said Mrs. Wright said: "Call the sheriff, my husband's going to kill me."

Shortly thereafter, Sandoe said, Wright arrived at the Sandoe home and "stuck a shotgun in my stomach." Sandoe told of struggling with Wright. He finally got the gun away from Wright.

Luther Sandoe, George's brother, told of Mrs. Wright coming to the Sandoe home. "Later we heard Fred Wright outside and George opened the door. That was a mistake," he added.

Wright said he had gone for coal and delivered it at his home at 3 o'clock that morning. He added that he had been drinking, "more than a fifth," while getting the coal and after putting it in the yard. Then he said he next remembers wondering where his wife and child had gone and of going to the Sandoes where he located her. Later he said, (Continued on Page 2)

Typhoid And Scarlet Fever Cases Tagged

A case of typhoid fever and three new cases of scarlet fever were placed under quarantine Saturday and Sunday by William I. Shields, state sanitary officer for Adams county.

The typhoid victim is Mrs. Jasper D. Shupe, 50, Gettysburg R. 4, Strabtown township. She was admitted to the Warner hospital April 14 and her illness was diagnosed Saturday as typhoid fever. It is the first case of that disease in Adams county in several years, Mr. Shields said.

The homes tagged for scarlet fever included: Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lain, Union township, where a daughter, Linda D., aged seven years, a pupil in St. Aloysius parochial school in Littlestown is ill; the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Little, Mt. Pleasant township, where the patient is a daughter, Nancy L., aged eight, a Conewago chapel school pupil; and the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tokyo, April 23 (AP)—United Nations troops pulled back as much as 12 miles under the impact of a major Red offensive which raged along 100 miles of the Korean front today.

In other sectors the Allies stopped the Reds cold. Where the Allies withdrew it was in orderly fashion.

The Communists, with nearly 700,000 men facing the front, launched their attack at 7:30 Sunday night behind their heaviest artillery barrage of the war. Their assault ceased in daylight Monday, but was renewed with fresh vigor Monday night.

Called "Major Effort"

One intelligence officer called the attack the Reds' "major effort." But another spokesman said Monday it's still too early to tell if it is the Reds' long-expected big spring push.

Close censorship delayed news of the offensive 14½ hours. Then it permitted only a fragmentary picture of the battle. This was it:

The Reds forced a crossing of the Imjin river along a 15 mile front in the west. They were checked by concentrated U.N. air and artillery fire. This crossing is 25 miles northwest to 30 miles north of Seoul, shell-shattered South Korean capital.

United Nations troops pulled back south of the Hantan river, in the adjoining sector to the east. They blew their bridges behind them.

The western front was strewn with bodies of thousands of Chinese, cut down by artillery and air bombardment.

"Roll With Punch"

All along the central front Allied troops "rolled with the punch." They fought from new positions Monday night over a battlefield garishly lighted by giant search lights, flood lights and flares dropped from planes.

U.N. withdrawals below the Hantan and on the central front apparently were to straighten the Allied line. It bulged northward at this point. Heaviest concentrations of Red troops were in this area.)

Allied forces stood firm on the east central front against Red assaults through Sunday night and Monday morning. Then action quieted.

On the extreme right the Reds drove wedges into the defense line north of Inje.

Severe Pounding

Attacking Reds took terrific punishment from U.N. air and artillery, both blasting away around the clock. Airmen estimated they killed 1,800 Reds Monday, their biggest toll in three and a half months.

In far northwest Korea 12 U. S. jets shot down four Russian made MIG jets and damaged another four. It was the largest air battle in 10 days. And it raised to 159 the number of MIG jets knocked out since early November.

Lt. James A. van Fleet, commander of the U. S. 8th Army, expressed confidence before the Red assault that his men could stop any Red counterblow. He added: "If the enemy knew what I know, he would go back to China right away."

Despite withdrawals, the U.N. forces appeared to be bearing out the general's words.

12 Mile Withdrawal

The longest pullback was in the war west. There Allied units which had been as much as 12 miles north of the 38th parallel pulled back south of the hypothetical dividing line between north and south Korea.

LEGISLATURE WILL RECESS

Harrisburg, April 23 (AP)—Legislative leaders, voicing "profound sorrow" over the death of Mrs. John S. Fine, decided to call off this week's session of the General Assembly today "as a mark of respect to Governor Fine and his family."

The decision to adjourn the legislature until Monday, April 30, was reached at a hurriedly called conference of Assembly leaders.

Both House and Senate will meet briefly in the late afternoon to adopt memorial resolutions and then put over controversial issues until next week. These include the House-passed income tax bill, awaiting Senate action.

Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, president pro tempore of the Senate, issued this statement on the Assembly plans due to Mrs. Fine's death early today in Philadelphia: "The leaders of the General Assembly have learned with profound sorrow of the death of the beloved wife of his excellency, the governor. It was decided at a conference of House and Senate leaders this morning that the respective Houses would meet briefly today to act upon necessary resolutions after which the House and Senate will immediately adjourn until Monday, April 30, as a mark of respect to Governor Fine and his family."

Rites Friday For Pvt. Baumgardner

Interment services for Pvt. William M. Baumgardner, first Adams county soldier killed in the Korean war, will be held in the National cemetery here Friday afternoon between 2 and 3 o'clock.

Will Draft 1,202 Doctors In Summer

Washington, April 23 (AP)—The Defense Department called today for the draft of 1,202 doctors during July, August and September.

Officials said the draft call is needed because there have not been enough volunteers to fill medical needs. If enough doctors volunteer, the present requisition will not be necessary, the department said.

The call is for priority one doctors — men who received medical education at government expense or were deferred from service during World War II to attend medical school, and who have served less than 90 days in the armed forces.

Only one previous call for the draft of doctors under the draft law amendment of September 5, 1950, has been issued. That call was made October 10. At that time the department asked for 1,522 doctors, dentists and veterinarians. No one, however, was actually inducted under that call. Sufficient men volunteered before the inductions took place.

Detroit Plants Slowed By Strike

Detroit, April 23 (AP)—Detroit's humming production of cars and military vehicles was slowed today by a strike that cleared the streets of all city buses and streetcars.

Although all the operators have been off the job since early Saturday morning, the full impact of the strike was not felt until today.

The auto industry's "Big Three" producers reported early absenteeism up to 20 per cent compared with a normal for Monday of four to six per cent.

Chrysler reported the 20 per cent figure for some of its plants. General Motors said the highest absenteeism in any of its Detroit plants was 12 per cent. Ford said its highest was 10 per cent.

Ex-Grider Faces New Murder Charge

Las Cruces, N. M., April 23 (AP)—New Mexico authorities have filed a new murder charge against Jerry Nuzum, 27, Pittsburgh Steeler halfback, in a legal maneuver to eliminate a hearing scheduled Tuesday.

Walter Kegler, assistant attorney general acting as special prosecutor declared the action was taken because of a published statement quoting a justice of the peace as saying "the police have the wrong man."

The new charge is identical with one filed March 30 charging Nuzum with slaying Ouida Cogler, Las Cruces waitress, in 1949. He has pleaded innocent and is free on $10,000 bond.

You couldn't blame Leo (The Lip) Durocher for talking to himself today. The wonder is that the loquacious leader of the New York Giants has any speech left at all.

To say that Durocher came off second best in the much ballyhooed battle of wits with Charlie Dressen, his former first lieutenant at Brooklyn, is putting it mildly. The new Dodger pilot outmaneuvered and outgeneraled Leo at every turn over the week-end as the Brooks vanquished their hated rivals three straight at the Polo Grounds.

The final crushing blow—and the most humiliating—came yesterday when the Dodgers snatched a thrilling victory from apparent certain defeat to whip the Giants 4-3, in 10 innings.

The triumph left the Dodgers in first place in the National league, a half-game in front of Pittsburgh and the Chicago Cubs. The Pirates defeated the Reds in Cincinnati, 7-5, and the Cubs tripped the Cards, 10-5, in St. Louis. Philadelphia's Phils salvaged the last of a three game series with Boston, winning an uphill 6-5 victory.

Indians Take Lead
Cleveland forged into the American league lead, sweeping a home doubleheader from the St. Louis Browns, 10-3 and 4-3. The Indians now have won five of six to hold a half-game edge over Washington and the Chicago White Sox. Rain washed out the scheduled game between the Senators and New York Yankees but the White Sox edged the Detroit Tigers, 3-2, in Chicago.

Boston's Red Sox pulled up to a 500 rating winning two games from the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-5 and 7-4, at Fenway Park. They now have won three and lost as many.

Yesterday's Giant defeat was more galling than the setbacks of Friday and Saturday. Sal Maglie, the veteran right-hander, needed only one more strike to record his first victory of the season. He had a 3-2 count on Gil Hodges with two out, nobody on base in the ninth and the Giants ahead, 3-2.

The third strike never came. Instead, Hodges walked, moved to second on Roy Campanella's single and scored the tying run on another one-bagger by Pee Wee Reese. Carl Furillo's homer, his first hit in 19 times at bat, decided the issue in the top of the 10th.

Temperatures Rise
Here is how Dressen stole the show from Durocher in the department most revered by Leo, the sensational, the extravagant, the spectacular, the unpredictable, the theatrical:

In the seventh inning on Friday, with Brooklyn leading 7-3, Durocher sent Artie Wilson, a left-hander hitter, to pinch hit. Dressen indicated disdain for the Lip's selection by shifting three of his infielders to the left side of second base, and pulling in his right fielder, Furillo, to play second. That left right field wide open, unprotected. The 30,000 witnesses could hardly believe it.

All Wilson had to do was tap the ball to right field and it probably would have been a home run. Right field in the Polo Grounds roams 450 feet to the bullpen. But Wilson the southpaw, who is a notorious opposite field hitter, tapped meekly back to the box and was an easy out. Wilson had played under Dressen in Oakland for two years. Durocher booted.

Pulls More Sensations
On Saturday, Dressen sent up two pinch hitters against Larry Jansen in the seventh and both walked, forcing in the tying run. After the Dodgers routed Jansen in the eighth, Dressen stole a page out of Durocher's book by ordering a squeeze bunt that brought in another Brooklyn run.

Dressen pulled the unexpected again yesterday, using Don Newcombe in relief. The staff's ace, who whipped the Giants in a nine-inning job Friday, hurled three hitless and runless innings to notch his second triumph in three days. Durocher ordered a batter purposely passed in the ninth hoping to get a pinch hitter for Newcombe. But Dressen crossed up his old sidekick again, allowing Big Don to bat thus keeping him in the game.

Cleveland Barons Win Calder Cup

Cleveland, April 23 (AP)—Champions over the regular season schedule and winners in the play-offs, Cleveland's Barons held the American Hockey league's Calder cup today and each Baron had a $1,113 cash reward.

For winning their fifth championship since the league was formed, Cleveland got $22,267 of a players' pool of $65,491.

Pittsburgh's Hornets, whom the Barons beat 3-1 in the seventh game of the final play-off series, got a $16,700 share. The Hornets, who finished third in regular season play, got 25 1/2 per cent of the players' pool and the Barons 34 per cent. The pool represented half of the net of the minimum number of games needed to decide playoff series. There were 17 such games attended by approximately 100,000 fans.

Buffalo, Springfield, Indianapolis and Hershey—all play-off participants—also share in the pool.

MOUNTAINS GAIN 1ST TRIUMPH

The Mt. St. Mary's college baseball team snapped a five-game losing streak and gained its first win of the season by nailing out Catholic university 3-1 at Emmitsburg Saturday afternoon.

Catholic turned in a triple play during the game.

Ward Clarke, Mount freshman, yielded but five hits, one a homerun by Jahne in the sixth.

The Mountaineers will play at Quantico on Wednesday and then will be host to Baltimore university on Saturday.

WINS KINSMAN AWARD

Williamsburg, Va., April 23 (AP)—Marianna Brose, 21, of York, Pa., a coed at the college of William and Mary, has won the 1951 Kinsman Trust scholarship to the Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts in London, England. Miss Brose, a senior, has been a dramatic student since her high school days in York's William Penn high. The scholarship is awarded to one person in the United States annually. Hundreds compete for it.

Harrisburg, April 23 (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine has signed into law a bill authorizing the state Fish commission to cooperate with the federal government in fish restoration projects in Pennsylvania.

The bill enables the commission to work with federal authorities in such problems as restoring shade to the Susquehanna river and ending the pile up of dead fish—killed by the lamprey species of fish—on Lake Erie shores. Sen. Montgomery F. Crowe (R-Monroe) sponsored the bill.

PENN STATE IS 11-4 WINNER OVER BULLETS

After spotting the Gettysburg college baseball team four runs in the top of the first inning, the Penn State nine tallied seven times in its half of the frame and went on to gain an 11-4 victory at State College Saturday afternoon.

The Bullets' first inning splurge was featured by a homerun by Ron Fitzkee with two mates on board.

Don Young started on the mound for the Plankmen but passed five batsmen before he was relieved by Harry Shultz. Shultz was also wild and gave way in the third to Mowry after walking five more and yielding five hits.

The defeat was the fourth in six outings for Gettysburg.

This week the Bullets face two engagements, meeting Western Maryland here Wednesday at 3 p.m. and playing Muhlenberg at Allentown on Saturday.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Selling Liquor on the Sabbath: At the Court of Quarter Sessions, the Grand Inquest of Adams County made a presentation on the subject of selling liquor on the Sabbath. The Court, in strong language, commended the action of the Grand Jury, and announced their determination hereafter to refuse to license any house where liquor may be sold on the Sabbath day.

The judge remarked that if it was at any time innocent or proper to indulge in the use of strong drink, it could never be so on the holy Sabbath—that it could never fit the mind for sober, moral, and religious reflection and self-examination—that it could never fit a person for pious meditation, for prayer, or for a seat in the sanctuary of God; but that it was a profanation of the Sabbath—unprofitable to all, displeasing and offensive to the virtuous and the good, and sinful in the sight of Heaven. He supposed the sale of liquor in public houses on Sundays was often the result of carelessness than of bad intention—that the long neglected Act of Assembly inhibiting it (passed more than a hundred years ago) seemed scarcely to be known, or if known, probably regarded as obsolete—that there was nothing in the terms of the license to prohibit it—and that in doing what so long had been done by others, the keepers of taverns were probably in most cases unconscious of the extent of the offense. Under this view, the Court would direct the communication of the Grand Jury, as well as the act of Assembly, to be published, with a hope that the practice would be given up by all respectable men. . . .

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Several weeks ago, Mr. John L. Holtzworth, of this place, while walking on the board walk in his garden, in his bare feet trampled on a nail. The wound inflamed, disabling Mr. Holtzworth for ten days or more. He will probably not be disposed hereafter to tramp around without shoes.

Westward: Mr. John Johns, of this County, started on Monday with his family for Abilene, Kansas, where forty-eight Adams county families settled during the last year.

Prof. Day's Lecture: Prof. W. Howard Day, of Harrisburg, delivered his lecture on "The March of Freedom around the World" in Agricultural Hall on Friday evening. He gave an eloquent and "interesting description of the struggle for freedom in all ages and all countries, and the lecture, in sentiment, thought and diction, was of the highest order and one of the very best ever delivered in Gettysburg. As an orator, we consider him equal, if not the superior of Fred Douglas, and some passages of his address were thrillingly eloquent. The audience, for some reason, was not as large as it should have been, but we are glad that another opportunity will be afforded our citizens to hear the lecture.

(A number of persons indicated their interest in having the lecture repeated. The names follow:—C. H. Buehler, Robert Horner, J. M. Krauth, M. L. Gano, H. Louis Baugher, Geo. H. Swope, W. S. McCready, Charles Horner, S. R. Russell, W. S. Van Cleave, J. L. Hill, A. Martin, W. T. King, and others.

On Thursday, as George Hiner, of Round Hill, was on his way to Gettysburg, riding a three-year old mule, the mule was frightened by a dog near Heidlersburg, ran off and in attempting to jump a post fence, threw Mr. Hiner off. The latter had his left arm and thigh bruised, but was able to walk home, leading the animal.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

FEEDERS OF CONFIDENCE

One of my twin boys, when very young, was operated upon for the removal of his appendix. The surgeon who did the job was a young man, but high in reputation. During the first night he kept in close touch with the hospital and called up several times to know how his "little patient" was getting on.

I remarked to the nurse in charge that this doctor took my fancy because of his great solicitude, but her reply was: "That doctor always worries about his patients." Well, I thought, when I get ill, or a loved one of mine gets ill, I want the doctor to do the worrying! The doctor who takes an interest in his patient as though that person were his own blood is the one who forever creates confidence.

Any one of us who has ever been ill and had to have a physician can well testify to the value, or good will, of the one who attended us. Some doctors lift you in spirit the moment they enter the room. The confidence they create within one is their best medicine. Often it is the only medicine needed!

I was a great admirer of the late Gen. George Patton. He was a rough talking man at times, and his personal conduct got him into a little trouble, but he was so brave, so daring, so inspiring that his men would follow him anywhere. Continually he fed his boys confidence and imbued within them a love of liberty and a love of country. Gen. MacArthur is the same stamp of a man. He fed his aides as well as his soldiers with confidence.

Without boast I would like to state that the purpose of these brief talks written for each day of the year has always been to create confidence in those who read them, also to try and create hope anew, to share with others some of the joys and happy instances that have added to my own life. No one can live happily to himself alone.

All great leaders are feeders of confidence. That's what makes them leaders. When that ability to feed confidence withers away that one's influence is at an end. We like to have those about us who inspire us with confidence in ourselves, thus endowing us with the ability to inspire others.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Not By Accident!" Protected, 1951, by The George Matthew Adams Service

VOTING RECORD AT WASHINGTON

Washington, April 23 (P) — All Pennsylvania House members, three absentees excepted, voted for the draft bill last week. Those not voting were Reps. Buchanan (D), Gillette (R) and Sittler (R). Sittler was paired as though voting yes.

The bill would extend selective service to July 1, 1954, extend service from 21 to 26 months, lower the draft age from 19 to 18½, and provide for a study of the Universal Military Training proposal. The bill was passed 372 to 44.

On another issue, however, the Pennsylvanians split along party lines. That was on an amendment to a bill providing funds for the Labor Department and Federal Security Agency. The amendment, approved 208 to 145, would allow those agencies to fill only one-fourth of the job vacancies that occur in the year starting July 1. The amendment was designed as an economy measure.

All Pennsylvania Republicans voted or were paired in favor of the amendment. All the Pennsylvania Democrats voted or were paired in opposition to it.

In the Senate, Senators Martin and Duff, Republicans, voted against President Truman's proposal to reorganize the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The proposal, which was approved, would substitute one top man for the present five-man board. The proposal was considered under a tricky parliamentary situation in which a "yes" vote indicated disapproval and a "no" vote indicated approval.

A resolution to disapprove the plan was defeated by a vote of 41 for, 33 against, a vote of 49 being required for adoption. Both Martin and Duff voted for the resolution, which meant they were not in favor of the plan. Some RFC critics have demanded the agency be abolished, not merely reorganized.

GOP To Demand Full Probe Of Policies

Washington, April 23 (P)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said today Republicans are going to insist upon an investigation of "every aspect" of the Truman-MacArthur controversy over Far Eastern policies.

Taft made the statement to a reporter amid indications that the military high command will give investigating senators a look at just about anything they want to see during their inquiry. Informed Pentagon sources, however, said a considerable part of the record is likely to be spread out only in closed-door sessions.

Taft said he will call the Senate Republican Policy committee together within the next few days to study "practical ways of getting a complete investigation." The committee already has endorsed a proposal by Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) to set up a 24-member committee from the Senate and House to inquire into military and foreign policies.

SPECIAL CARE FOR BLUEBERRY

The high-bush blueberry requires a little special treatment if it is to be grown satisfactorily in the home garden. It grows best in a soil that is more acid than that recommended for other fruits. It likes a soil composed chiefly of organic matter and sand. The blueberry will grow in a loamy soil and grow well if it is treated right during its first few years. Although we find the native blueberry in bogs and swamps, it must be planted on well drained soils. In the swamps there is a good supply of oxygen for the roots in the water and in the moss and partially decomposed organic matter.

For each blueberry plant, dig a hole about four feet square and eight to twelve inches deep. Mix in equal proportions of sandy loam soil and sawdust or peat moss. Add a little composted manure or plant compost or just fertile garden soil. The best soil pH or acidity is about 4.8. If the mixture prepared is more alkaline than 4.8, add some dusting sulphur. Add three ounces of sulphur to five bushels if the pH is about 6.0. Mix the soil, sawdust or peat, sulphur and compost thoroughly. Place this mixture in the hole and let it weather for about two months before planting.

For the established blueberry plants fertile each bush with 7-7-7 or 5-10-5 fertilizer using about three pounds a 100 square feet. Mulched plants may require more fertilizer, especially nitrogen. Plants showing a need for nitrogen should receive about one-third of a pound of sodium nitrate around the bearing plant a few inches from the crown out beyond the spread. Apply the fertilizer in early March and again in late May.

Keep off garden soil when it is wet enough to show your foot-prints. This is advisable after spading as well as before. Cultivating is easier to do and more effective if the soil crumbles readily. Never plant or cultivate in mud.

All hardy flowers and vegetables can be sown as soon as the ground is prepared, even though night frosts are frequent. Hardy means resistant to frost, and the germination of many hardy plants is improved by a chill.

County Weekly Farm And Garden Section

This Hurts The Gardener But Surely Helps The Crop

It hurts to destroy your plants but ruthless thinning is necessary for a good yield.

Thinning-out time is always a trying one for the beginning gardener. With few if any exceptions, you must sow more seeds than you have room to mature, and if they come up many must be sacrificed, so the rest may have room to grow.

The reason for this is the ever-present risk in gardening. The moulds which destroy seeds in the ground, or the seedlings just emerging, will always take their toll. Other mishaps may occur to plants as they grow larger, so it is always well to have a few spares growing. The amateur likes a row to be filled out with no vacant spaces, and should be willing to devote extra labor to insuring this, by doing his thinning gradually.

As soon as seedlings get large enough to handle—usually when they grow their second pair of leaves—take care that every plant stands free from every other—an inch apart at least. If seeds were sown thinly, there should be no cases of entangled roots at this stage. Then, as the plants grow, alternate ones should be removed until they stand at the space deemed best for their full development.

In this process many plants thinned out can be used for the table. Lettuce, especially, is usable as soon as the leaves are two inches across. Some gardeners never thin lettuce, but let it grow in crowded rows, pulling as needed or even cutting off the leaves, so that more will grow. This never gives lettuce of the best quality, and it causes the plants to bolt to seed earlier than normally.

Almost any young vegetable can be transplanted from one place to another in the row, by taking up enough soil so that its roots are not disturbed. In this way vacant spaces in the row can be filled but you will notice that even this will check the growth of the plant which is moved.

When carrots are sown thinly, thinning may be left until some are large enough to use.

It is the half-grown carrots that are most delicious, and the growth is so much more in length than in the diameter of the root that the thinning process does not disturb the others so much.

Turnips do not grow well if crowded. If the young plants are pulled up so they stand four inches apart in the row, in a remarkably quick time they will be large enough to use.

Beets are more easily handled than turnips when they are a little larger, and one should not fail to try a dish of beet tops with the tiny roots just beginning to form. It is a delicious introduction to the garden menu. The beets which are left in the ground should be spaced two inches apart.

WHEN CHICKS TURN CANNIBALS

Feather picking and cannibalism among chicks are twin evils probably resulting from the same general cause or causes. Experience and research are more and more moving toward the belief that a dietary deficiency contributes to the strange habit by which chicks feed on the blood and flesh of each other. Here the problem is viewed from the standpoint of management and feeding, the only angles from which progress has been demonstrated in control and prevention.

Crowding is a known factor in starting feather picking and cannibalism. Plenty of space plus liberal room at feed hoppers and drinking fountains goes far in avoiding outbreaks. However, after the evil starts, more room will not bring relief. In fact, after chicks gain a taste of blood they will pursue the vicious habit even on a roomy range.

Many poultrymen have discovered that these ills seldom occur when the mash contains 10 to 20 per cent oats or 20 to 30 per cent bran. In addition, as most commercial mash include, some form of animal matter is needed for the dual purpose of rounding out a safe ration and at the same time to satisfy the chick's appetite for "meat." Such materials consist of meat scrap, fish meal and steamed bone meal.

Usually the poultry raiser wants most of all the know what to do when outbreaks of cannibalism occur. Experiments as well as practice indicate that the addition of more salt to the ration will greatly and quickly curb the trouble, usually in a few hours. In long-standing cases the salt content may be kept at a higher level for two or three days. Of course, this should not be continued.

If this remedy fails after more animal matter has been added to the mash, trimming back the upper portion of the beak of each chick may be necessary as an emergency measure. From one-eighth to three-sixteenths of an inch is carefully pared off with a sharp knife. The operation is painless. And while this amputation will slightly interfere with the bird's feeding, the greatest effect will be seen in absence of cannibalistic efforts.

There have been many claims of merit in various color schemes in brooder houses to prevent or cure cannibalism. Several years ago many poultrymen painted the side walls a deep blue. They claimed varying results in curing feather picking and cannibalism. Use of ruby-colored lights and window glass is now advised by several authorities. Trials are simple by tying red paper over the electric bulbs and pasting ruby-colored paper over the window panes. It is worth trying.

Buying sexed chicks and thereby avoiding mixtures of sexes will probably reduce some of the danger. Removal of male chicks as early as sex can be determined is advisable so the males may be hurried along to broiler market. In addition it may curtail cannibalistic tendencies in the flock.

Toe picking often results from chicks having no access to mash all the time. Hungry, they may mistake the tiny toes of their fellow members for grains and thereby start a cycle of practices that ends in cannibalism. Use of litter, keeping chicks busy by giving them grass or clover clippings in woven wire bags on the walls, and reduction of light often check the toe-pickers.

SUNFLOWERS AS A FARM CROP

Our loudly boasted twentieth century progress collides with one of its many outstanding refutations in the common, lowly sunflower. Here is an unusually hardy, easily grown annual plant with astounding merits, undeveloped merits. It could attain, if research was seriously and efficiently directed, great prominence as a farm crop. Therefore, to back up these promises of its reputation, let us briefly examine the sunflower in its economic light, along with a few suggestions for its culture.

From a standpoint of livestock feed sunflower seeds exceed all other regular farm grains in protein value with the one exception of soybeans. The immature stalks and seed heads make excellent silage. Many farmers who have tried this crop say sunflower silage is equal to corn in the same role. The tonnage from good land runs around 18 to 20 tons per acre.

Ripe sunflower seeds yield an oil prominent in world commerce. It is one of the few vegetable oils that is suitable for human consumption without refining. It is widely used in margarine, salad oils and other cooking compounds. During the last 10 years importations of sunflower oil have averaged slightly more than two million pounds annually.

In some parts of the world the nutritious seeds are sold on city streets in the same manner as peanuts are sold in this country. They are eaten raw. So far as is known, little or no research has been conducted to promote human consumption.

PROBLEMS OF NEW GARDENS

Many new home owners will be making their first gardens this spring and will have all types of soil—from good native soil to that which came out of the excavation for the foundation—on which to start. Fortunately, on most new housing developments the topsoil was put to one side and spread afterward in grading. Unfortunately, much of this work has been done with bulldozers and too often there has been considerable packing of wet soil.

It will be desirable to have the soil tested to see if it needs lime. Lime supplies some of the needs of the plant for food materials. Also, it improves the physical condition of the soil, especially one that may be packed tight and poorly drained. Usually you can apply three or four pounds of pulverized limestone to 100 square feet to good advantage.

In all of our experiences with garden soils, the need for organic matter stands out as the most essential material to be added.

Where the soil is heavy clay, organic matter helps in drainage and keeps the soil from packing and baking in summer. Organic material in sandy soils helps hold soil moisture. It supplies some of the food that beneficial bacteria need and helps to hold fertilizers.

Where to get organic material may be a problem, but it will be worth the effort and money expended. If you are near woodlands you may be able to get rotted and half rotted leaves. Two or three neighbors can co-operate to get stable manure. Peat moss or any other form of commercial organic matter may be used.

Spread lime and organic matter and dig them in after the soil has become dry enough to be workable. If it is very lumpy with packed clods, leave it loose through two or three rains and this may assist in breaking it down.

tion of sunflower seed in the western world.

The seed serves also as an excellent poultry feed supplement. Again, we have perhaps less than touched the borders of research to determine the full worth of this crop as a high-protein grain carrier in rations for beef cattle, dairy cows, hogs, sheep and other livestock.

From the manufacture of sunflower oil there remains a feed-rich cake or meal widely demanded by many foreign farmers.

The stalks make excellent paper. They contain a fiber that compares favorably with natural silk.

Considerably less expense and labor are required to grow sunflowers than corn and other ordinary tilled crops. And in all the potential uses here mentioned the predominant fact must be stressed that the total production per acre is usually heavy. Here is a crop that actually clamors for a prominent place in American agriculture.

Why sunflowers have not come into this place can surely be laid at the door of federal and state research authorities. While much of our governmental machinery has been whirling in efforts to "cure" (destroy), it could and should have been in this case geared to a concerted program of expansion.

Sunflowers require a friable loam, fairly deep and well drained. A liberal balance of organic matter is desirable. Any soil that grows a good crop of corn serves equally well for sunflowers. Seed should be planted no later than field corn. Spacing plants 10 inches apart in rows slightly narrower than corn is recommended. Weed eradication is obviously the chief purpose of cultivation.

A side dressing on nitrogenous fertilizer after plants are a foot or more high hastens growth and increases plant vigor.

The editor will be glad to discuss the subject further with interested readers who write him.

BLAIR MOODY NEW SENATOR OF MICHIGAN

Lansing, Mich., April 23 (AP)—Blair Moody, Washington correspondent for the Detroit News, was named today by Governor Mennen Williams as U. S. Senator from Michigan succeeding the late Arthur H. Vandenberg.

The 49-year-old Moody has been assigned to the News' Washington bureau since 1933. During World War II, he served as war correspondent for the News and the North American Newspaper Alliance.

"Senator Moody is a Democrat," Williams said in announcing the appointment. Moody's political affiliation was not generally known before, but his boss, News Editor Karl Lysinger of the Detroit News, described him as: "A New Dealer from the start."

Moody's appointment gives the Democrats a four-vote margin in the Senate. Vandenberg was a Republican.

Moody is a personal friend of Williams and was a long-time friend of Vandenberg. He went to Washington in 1933.

"Blair Moody most completely meets the needs of Michigan for Senate representation and needs of the national for capable, vigorous and experienced leadership," Williams said.

"I know him as a fine citizen of high ability, a friend of Senator Vandenberg, Frank Murphy and Franklin Delano Roosevelt."

JURY CONVICTS WOMAN MEDIC

Albuquerque, April 23 (AP)—Dr. Nancy Campbell, prominent Santa Fe woman doctor, has been sentenced to 10 to 15 years in prison for kidnapping a nine-year-old girl.

The 43-year-old physician and surgeon was released on $40,000 bond after her attorney, A. L. Zinn, said the case would be appealed to the state Supreme Court.

The district court jury of 12 business and tradesmen took just 55 minutes to convict Dr. Campbell Saturday after a six-day trial.

The jury rejected the defense plea that Dr. Campbell was insane last November 10 when she kidnapped nine-year-old Linda Stamm.

She was arrested as she reached for a package she thought contained $20,000 ransom at the gateway to the Stamm estate near Santa Fe November 11.

Dr. Campbell won Phi Beta Kappa honors at the University of Texas and was one of the first woman graduates of the Yale medical school.

Re-wed GI Widow Loses Insurance

Philadelphia, April 23 (AP)—The remarried widow of a GI killed in Germany has lost her plea to be named beneficiary of his insurance policies.

U. S. District Judge Guy K. Bard ruled Saturday that Mrs. Mary Kerrigan, Girardville, Pa., "lost her rights to the status of widowhood" by remarrying less than two months after the death of her former husband Henry R. Trathen, in 1945.

Trathen had named his mother beneficiary of two National Service life insurance policies amounting to $10,000 and payments were made to her until her death in 1949. Then the Veterans Administration began sending payments to Mrs. Kerrigan. But the soldier's father, Stephen Trathen, of Philadelphia, brought suit to claim the benefits.

Mrs. Kerrigan contended she was the lawful widow and was entitled to the money under VA rules of succession of beneficiaries.

Crisis Deepens For British Socialism

London, April 23 (AP)—The crisis in Britain's Socialist government was reported deepening today. Informal sources said a second cabinet member has quit in protest against the trimming of free medical services in favor of the rearmament drive.

These sources said the cabinet's youngest member, 35-year-old Harold Wilson, had handed in his resignation as president of the Board of Trade.

Such a move would further rock Prime Minister Attlee's unsteady Labor government, already reeling under the impact of fiery Aneurin Bevan's resignation yesterday from the post of labor minister. There were unconfirmed reports that one or two junior ministers were planning to follow Bevan and Wilson.

Labor party circles believed the revolt might result in the government's defeat in the budget debates this week, forcing a general election soon. With Socialist popularity generally conceded to be at a low point now, Winston Churchill's Conservatives gleefully predicted they soon would be back in power.

Edward L. Gibbs Is Executed Early Today For Killing Girl

Edward L. Gibbs, hatless and handcuffed, is surrounded by police officials as he leaves Lancaster County prison to be taken to Rockview Penitentiary at Bellefonte, Pa. Gibbs was executed early today for the "impulse" slaying of Marian Baker, Franklin and Marshall college secretary. (AP Wirephoto)

Bellefonte, Pa., April 23 (AP)—Edward L. Gibbs, former college student and World War II veteran, was executed early today for the "impulse" slaying of a girl typist.

The 26-year-old member of a prominent Pitman, N. J., family was convicted in Lancaster of killing Marian Louise Baker, January 10, 1950. He was a senior at Franklin and Marshall college at the time Miss Baker, 21, was beaten to death with a lug wrench.

Gibbs admitted the slaying, but pleaded that he had acted upon an impulse.

The tall, dark-haired, husky Gibbs was near collapse when he was brought to Rockview penitentiary Saturday night from Lancaster county jail. But late yesterday, Warden J. W. Claudy said, the doomed man grew calmer and seemed to be reconciled to death in the electric chair. He ate a substantial last meal, asking nothing more than regular prison fare.

Parents Visit Son
Earlier in the day, Gibbs' father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lester Gibbs, spent an hour with him in his cell.

Prison officials said Gibbs walked the short distance from his cell in the death house to the execution chamber, erect and composed. With him was the Rev. William H. Bollman, pastor of the First Reformed church of Lancaster, intoning the Twenty-Third psalm.

All through the evening the Rev. Mr. Bollman had sat with the condemned man, reading from the Bible and quietly praying.

Gibbs went to the death chair without help. He closed his eyes for a moment, opened them, gazed slowly around the chamber. He was pale, but no agitation showed upon his face.

It was then 31 minutes after midnight.

Three minutes later death was certified. Afterward the body was claimed by the parents.

Burial will be in Pitman on Wednesday.

Gibbs, who was married, told the jury at his trial that he killed Miss Baker "on an impulse" after they had driven in his automobile to a lonely place, known as a rendezvous for lovers, near Lancaster.

He testified that he stopped the car near a summer cottage, and in a moment of unreason choked the girl.

Then, he said, his mind went blank and he could remember nothing more "until I saw blood on my hands" and saw, too, the wrench which was used to beat the girl to death.

BOROUGHES ASK AID FROM STATE

Harrisburg, April 23 (AP)—The Pennsylvania State Association of Boroughs called on the state today to give financial aid to communities ordered to build new sewage treatment plants.

The association also urged the State Sanitary Water board to give individual attention to construction plans for each community.

The request was made in a resolution passed at the association's annual convention here over the weekend.

The resolution urged the Sanitary Water board to determine each community's cost per capita for construction of a sewage plant and make arrangements for the community to receive appropriate state or federal aid. The Water board is directing the state's huge clean streams program.

The association also urged support of a Senate bill to give financially-distressed communities an additional two years to comply with the Sanitary Water board's anti-pollution orders.

The organization selected Pittsburgh as the site for its 1952 convention. It re-elected T. P. Christwaite, of Hanover, as its president and named these other officers: G. D. Houtman, Media, and P. C. Pendleton, Bryn Athyn, vice presidents; A. B. Davidson, Tarentum, financial secretary; C. F. Leedecker, State College, secretary; and Carol Cook, Platea, Erie county, treasurer.

Inflation Control Drive To Spread

Washington, April 23 (AP)—The Administration's drive to stiffen inflation controls is about to switch to labor and agriculture, now that the toughening job on business is being completed.

A new Wage Stabilization board, established over the weekend by President Truman, will have as one of its first tasks the problem of a freeze on further living-cost pay increases for workers.

A somewhat similar plan for agriculture—a freeze in further changes in parity—is expected to be included among Mr. Truman's recommendations to Congress for changes in the defense production act. A return to wartime food subsidies is another probable proposal.

Any proposal to freeze farmers' parity, Senator Maybank (D-SC) predicted, "doesn't stand a chance." Maybank, head of the Senate Banking committee which handles wage-price control legislation, told a reporter, "Congress not only will reject it, but in my opinion will write a provision into the law making a freeze on parity specifically illegal."

Vishinsky Admits He Doesn't Pray

Baltimore, April 23 (AP)—Senator Wiley (R-Wis.) based his speech here last night on a remark Russian Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky made to him four years ago. Wiley recalled that when he was daughter of Sgt. John E. and Myriad Redding Maitland, North Queen street, was baptized following the Sunday morning masses at St. Aloysius church, by the pastor, the Rev. Fr. Edward J. Shanahan. The sponsors were the paternal uncle and aunt of the child, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wood, Hampton, Va. The child was born April 12 at the Warner hospital. Sgt. Maitland is now serving in Korea.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Maitland are now residing at their home on West King street. They had been living for some time in Gettysburg.

introduced to Vishinsky, he told the Russian: "I pray every night that the United States, Russia and Great Britain... will have a sincere desire for peace."

Vishinsky's reply: "I don't pray." And that's what's wrong with the world today, the Senator observed. A member of the Senate Crime Investigating committee, Wiley spoke on religion at the University Baptist church in Baltimore.

ATOMIC BOMB CLIMAX SOON

Hong Kong, April 23 (AP)—Senator Magnuson (D-Wash.) said today the climax of the United States' nuclear fission tests in mid-Pacific is scheduled "some time within the next week or so."

He declined to say whether a new type atom bomb is being tried, but added:

"It has to do with nuclear fission." Magnuson said the test would climax a series of Atomic Energy commission has been conducting "for the past 40 years."

The experiments are being conducted at the U. S. Atomic Proving Ground at Eniwetok in the Marshall Islands. The AEC has reported tests were scheduled there this spring, but has kept dates and details secret.

Magnuson said he would leave in three or four days for Kwajalein, some 200 miles from Eniwetok, en route to witness the tests.

Magnuson arrived today "to investigate the feasibility of broadening the U. S. immigration legislation to permit entry of more displaced persons from the Far East."

He said he also would look into Hong Kong's position as a supply port for Red China.

Harrisburg, April 23 (AP)—A new move was underway today in the General Assembly to end the ban on the sale of colored oleomargarine in Pennsylvania.

The League of Women Voters of Pennsylvania, joining in the colored oleo drive, said a new bill is being prepared, enabling the lifting of the present ban. The new legislation was devised after the Senate Agriculture committee announced last week it had pigeon-holed several bills which would lift the colored oleo ban.

MRS. FINE DIES; 2ND EMERGENCY OPERATION FAILS

Philadelphia, April 23 (AP) — Mrs. John S. Fine, wife of Pennsylvania's governor, died early today of a brain tumor.

Dr. Frank E. Nulsen, who performed an emergency operation late at night, described Mrs. Fine's ailment as malignant. He said the tumor had been growing rapidly.

Mrs. Fine, 42, was first brought to the University of Pennsylvania hospital by a special police escort Feb. 14. The next day she underwent two brain operations.

Change Diagnosis

She was returned to Harrisburg March 7. A month afterwards, Mrs. Fine was returned to the hospital here for a checkup.

At first, hospital spokesmen announced that Mrs. Fine died as a result of a fall suffered during her husband's gubernatorial campaign last fall.

It is now not believed that the fall led to her death, although it may have had a contributory effect.

Husband At Bedside

A special bulletin issued from the hospital at 9 a.m., yesterday, stated: "Due to emergency developments, a second operation was performed early today upon Mrs. Helene Morgan Fine, wife of Gov. John S. Fine. The Governor was present at the hospital during the operation and has since remained at his wife's bedside. This second operation was necessitated by pressure within the skull. As of this hour the condition of Mrs. Fine was described by attending physicians as serious. She was resting comfortably, however."

But shortly before midnight her blood pressure fell. The physicians and her husband, for whom accommodation had been made in an adjoining room, were called to her bedside. She died five minutes after midnight.

Also at the bedside were Mrs. Fine's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Morgan, of Nanticoke, and a long time friend, Mrs. Ruth Samuel.

Tentative arrangements are for private funeral services to be held Wednesday morning in Wilkes-Barre. The Governor expects to leave for Wilkes-Barre today probably by noon.

Blamed On Fall

A spokesman described the Governor as heavy-hearted with sorrow, but comforted in his great loss by the sympathy and prayers of many of his fellow-Pennsylvanians and others outside the state.

In the absence of Dr. Grant, Dr. Frank E. Nulsen, of the hospital's Neuro-Surgical staff, performed yesterday's operation. Dr. Rudolph Jaeger, of Jefferson hospital, attended as consultant.

Mrs. Fine's illness was attributed to a fall she suffered while attending a hotel luncheon here last October during her husband's campaign for the governorship.

In Harrisburg, Senator John M. Walker, Republican floor leader, said he would meet with other legislative leaders today to discuss the likelihood of recessing the General Assembly as a mark of respect. Both the House and Senate are scheduled to reconvene late this afternoon following the usual weekend adjournment.

"To those of us who knew Mrs. Fine well," Walker said, "the news of her death is especially overwhelming. Everybody in Pennsylvania will feel badly about this tragedy."

Born November 6, 1908, in Nanticoke, Helene Morgan Fine was graduated from Coughlin high school in Wilkes-Barre, and later attended Wyoming seminary in that city.

She met Fine at the home of friends in Nanticoke. They were married December 5, 1939, in New York city's Church of the Transfiguration, known the world over as the "Little Church around the Corner."

Always Mrs. Fine had taken a keen interest in works of charity. At one time she was an officer and the secretary of the probation court in Luzerne county, of which Fine then was judge.

Active In Charities

She was active also in developing the Visiting Nurses association of Nanticoke and was a past president of that organization. She was a member of the boards of the Nanticoke Federation of Charities and of the Nanticoke Tuberculosis society.

Before moving into the executive mansion in Harrisburg at the beginning of this year, the Fines made their home in Nanticoke where they had ample opportunity to indulge one of their special hobbies, gardening.

With her husband and their two sons, John, 10, and Donald, 8, she attended St. George's Protestant Episcopal church in Nanticoke. Fine served as senior warden of the church for many years.

Mrs. Fine took a leading part in her husband's political campaign last year, traveling with him through most of the counties of the state on speaking engagements. It was at such a rally that she fell and suffered the injury believed to have caused her death.

Washington, April 23 (AP)—The Defense Department identified today 153 additional casualties of the Korean war. A new list (No. 284) included 26 killed, 94 wounded, ten missing, three died of wounds and 25 injured in accidents.

Negotiate Tariffs With 17 Key Nations

Washington, April 23 (AP) — The United States has negotiated new tariff agreements with 17 key Western nations. The State Department said the adjustment rates will be made public May 9.

Britain, for the first time, was not among the nations with whom the U.S. swapped tariff concessions. American and British negotiators failed to reach agreement at the trade conference which opened at Torquay, England, last September 28.

A total of 22 nations took part in the negotiations. Countries with whom the U.S. successfully negotiated new accords are Belgium, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Brazil, Canada, Denmark, the Dominican Republic, France, Indonesia, Italy, Norway and Sweden.

Five nations which signed tariff accords with the U.S. for the first time since the war ended were Austria, Germany, South Korea, Peru and Turkey.

"SMOKE SCREEN" CHARGE HURLED

Washington, April 23 (AP) — Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) accused the administration Saturday of "smoke-screening" the issue to whether the high command ever shared Gen. Douglas MacArthur's military views on the Korean war.

Senator Long (D-La.) replied that MacArthur had "lost one gamble" when the Chinese Communists entered the war and President Truman was only preventing the deposed Pacific commander from "taking the final gamble that Russia would not come in if we bomb China."

Hickenlooper is a Senate Foreign Relations committee member. Long is a member of the armed services group. The two committees will sit together for an investigation late this month of Far Eastern military and diplomatic policies.

Their differences were characteristic of a congressional split so deep it erupted into a tussle yesterday between three or four senators recording a radio debate on the issues MacArthur's firing has raised.

The three contestants — Senators Humphrey (D-Minn.) and Lehman (D-Lib.-N.Y.) on one side and Senator Capehart (R-Ind.) on the other — couldn't agree on exactly what happened. Everyone's tempers and clothing were rumped considerably. Senator Taft (R-Ohio) acted as peacemaker.

He agreed with the others, however, that the four couldn't agree on MacArthur's program to fight an expanded war against the Communists in Korea or on whether military men generally shared MacArthur's views.

Woman Changes Birthday Observance

Los Angeles, April 23 (AP) — Mrs. Beatrice H. C. Wood doesn't like her birthday. It is the same as President Truman's. She has served notice she will celebrate hereafter on General MacArthur's birthday instead.

Mrs. Wood said in a personal note she offered the Los Angeles Times on Friday that she has celebrated many years on May 8 but hereafter will observe Jan. 26 "along with Gen. Douglas MacArthur, with whom I am willing to fade away."

To a suggestion that perhaps her hour of birth might have been different from the President's, Mrs. Wood replied:

"I was born very early in the morning. It was too early for me to be awake, or I'd have done something about it."

Incidentally, Mrs. Wood and her husband, Vernon D. Wood, a financial counselor, are both Republicans.

Reds "Poisoned" Against Yankees

Frederick, Md., April 23 (AP)—Secretary of Defense Marshall said today he believed Russian people are friendly but their minds have been "poisoned" against the U.S.

"I think for many years they had a decided leaning toward this country, but now are steadily being turned against us," Marshall said in an address prepared for delivery at a convocation of Hood college. His prepared text made no reference to the controversy over the firing of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

"When one pauses to consider the problem we have in dealing with Russia where their people never hear the truth regarding us and our friendly nations, it is not difficult to comprehend how nearly impossible it is to reach a generous understanding with them," Marshall said.

THINK MISSING

Pittsburgh, April 23 (AP)—A 14-year-old boy who told his father, "I'm going fishing, don't try to find me," is believed enroute to Canada today in the family car he never drove before.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Dravotta said they discovered their son, Warren, missing yesterday. On the kitchen table was the note Dr. Cravotta said his son loves to fish. They have made several fishing trips to Canada together.

Mayor Seeks To Cut Down On Drinking

New Orleans, April 23 (AP)—Mayor deLeespeps Morrison says too many visitors here drink too much.

"They do things they wouldn't consider doing in their own home town," the mayor said yesterday in submitting a new ordinance to the city commission council.

The proposed ordinance would make it unlawful for any persons "to be in a state of drunkenness upon any street or in a public place."

Utilities Commissioner A. Brown Moore called the ordinance sort of a service charge for caring for drunks. Fines would range from $2.50 to $15 or five days in jail.

Two Flower Girls

Mrs. Susan Sheads, Harrisburg, cousin of the groom, and Miss Carole Jayne Smith, Gettysburg, a niece of the bride, were the flower girls. They wore white organza gowns trimmed in lace with fitted bodices and full skirts. Carrying baskets of pastel flowers, they wore matching head bands of flowers.

Mervin D. Weikert, Jr., Gettysburg R. 5, acted as best man. The ushers were Richard Waybright, brother of the bride, and John Seely, Berwick, cousin of the groom. Mark Marts, Hanover, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a street-length dress of navy blue sheer with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Sittler chose a street-length dress of navy blue sheer and navy accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow roses.

200 At Reception

Before the ceremony Richard B. Shade, organist, presented an organ recital. The soloists were John Raf-fensperger and Harry Coffelt, who sang "Because," "Oh Promise Me," "Through the Years," and "The Lord's Prayer." The traditional wedding marches were used.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. Approximately 200 guests attended the reception.

After the reception the couple left on a honeymoon of unannounced destination. For her going-away ensemble, the bride wore a fitted navy and white check suit and navy accessories. Her corsage was of white roses and stephanotis. Upon their return they will reside at the home of the groom.

Littlestown BOYS ARE HOME FROM FHA MEET

Six boys, members of the senior class of the Littlestown high school, attended the convention of the Future Homemakers of America, as delegates from the only all boy chapter in Pennsylvania. The convention, which was held on Friday and Saturday at the William Penn hotel, Pittsburgh, was attended by the local boys and 600 girls representing Pennsylvania clubs. The Littlestown youths who attended were Fred Snyder, Robert Gordon, Lewis Motter, Allen Shanbrook, Mahlon Weikert and Robert Yingling and Richard Snyder of the faculty. The boys served as ushers at the Saturday morning session and a quartet composed of Lewis Motter, Allen Shanbrook, Mahlon Weikert and Robert Gordon, accompanied on the piano by Robert Yingling, entertained during the lunch hour.

The male chapter has 22 members and, like the girls in other units, the boys are studying homemaking under the guidance of the high school principal, Paul E. King. The youths used their homemaking skills to finance their way to the Pittsburgh session. They made 45 gallons of chicken corn soup and several batches of apple and cherry pies, which they sold in the community.

The girls' club at the high school was represented by the following: June Breighner, delegate, Mary Flickinger, Dolores Koonz, Janet Phillips and Mrs. Virginia Sheely, home economics instructor of the school. Mary Flickinger was elected president of Region C of the Pennsylvania FHA clubs, which are divided into four regions.

Society Meets

"Give Us This Day Our Daily Bread" was the topic of discussion at the April meeting of the Women's Missionary society of St. Luke's Union church, near White Hall, Friday evening at the church. The discussion was led by Mrs. Charles Ginter. Society members participating were Miss Betty Hartlaub, Mrs. D. C. Shanbrook, Mrs. Roscoe Klinefelter, Mrs. Hazel Flickinger, Mrs. Rodney Harner, Mrs. John H. Hartlaub and Mrs. Calvin Sentz, Sr.

The meeting was in charge of the first vice president, Miss Betty Hartlaub, and opened with a song service, with Miss Velma Flickinger as piano accompanist. Miss Hartlaub and Mrs. Hazel Flickinger were appointed delegates to the Women's Nevin Regional Guild meeting to be held Tuesday at Wolfe's church, near Spring Grove. The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Ginter. Mrs. Rodney Harner will be the leader for the May meeting to be held at the church, Friday, May 18.

A shrimp feed will be held Friday evening for the members, wives and guests of Littlestown eagle No. 2226, Fraternal Order of Eagles at the Eagles home, West King street. The couples' grill room at the home is now open Friday, Saturday and Sunday evening and Sunday afternoon, at which time platters, sandwiches and drinks are served.

The Rev. Fr. Edward J. Shanahan, pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic church, announced at the Sunday morning masses that a Conewago Deanery youth party for young people of 16 years and over will be held in the parish hall on Friday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock. A program will be held, which will include dancing, and refreshments will be served. The local Parish Council of Catholic Women will be the host group. The Conewago Deanery Council of Catholic Women will hold its quarterly meeting on Sunday afternoon, April 29, at St. Andrew's church, Waynesboro. The Rev. Fr. Shanahan also announced that first communion day for a class of parish children will be held at the 7:30 a.m. mass on Mother's Day, May 13.

Three Are Lost In Fishing Tragedy

Payville, N. Y., April 23 (AP)—Two men and a boy were given up as lost today after a fishing accident on Long Island Sound.

Listed by police as apparently drowned were: Joseph Jones, 35, an auto mechanic, of Oyster Bay, N. Y.; William Barnes, 15, a high school student, of Diners Hill, Pa.; and Charles Barnes, 24, William's brother, a painter, of Pottsville, Pa. The latter two were brothers-in-law of Jones.

The three sank in the choppy water yesterday after their flat-bottomed boat, ten feet long and carrying an outboard motor, capsized on a fishing trip.

A fourth person in the party was rescued by two other fishermen. He is Lester Zimmerman, 38, of St. Clair, Pa., also a brother-in-law of Jones. Zimmerman saw his companions sink in the waves. Zimmerman was found clinging to the capsize boat about a mile offshore.

Washington, April 23 (AP) — The Veterans administration revealed today that two-thirds of the World War II veterans who have gone to below-college-level schools under the GI bill enrolled in trade schools.

The agency estimated the number who trained in schools below the college level between June 22, 1944, and the end of 1950, at 3,364,000.

Plane symbols locate area of "MIG Valley" in the Sinuiju area of North Korea where the largest jet aerial battle in ten days flamed April 22. On the ground front Allied infantry (black arrows) moved forward cautiously on a 50-mile front in the Chorwon-Kumhva area and at the eastern end of the Hwachon reservoir. Allies were expecting a long-awaited Red counteroffensive to be launched at any time.

Some GI wag, remembering those shaving cream signs back home, put up these on poles along a highway in Korea. A military policeman patrolling the road scratches his head as he reads the series. BIRTH CONTROL URGED TO SOLVE CRISIS IN INDIA

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AF Foreign Affairs Analyst)

A strange paradox lies behind the announcement by India's Prime Minister Nehru that he favors birth control to curb his country's growing population and help solve the food crisis.

India's population is 362,030,000 and it is increasing at the rate of 4,000,000 yearly. Premier Nehru says that in the famine areas at least 25,000,000 are existing on food rations well below subsistence levels. The U. S. Congress is now considering the sending of some $95,000,000 worth of food to India to help meet this famine crisis.

The paradoxical aspect rests in the fact that, apart from the current famine areas, India always has had many millions of underprivileged people who literally never have known what it was to be without hunger. In order to remedy this deficiency a British commonwealth program already is under way for vast improvement of agricultural resources.

This program of course has the humanitarian object of reducing hunger and thus improving general health conditions. But such an improvement naturally means a higher birth rate and less infant mortality. Such an increase in population under current circumstances would always keep undernourishment in the driver's seat.

That, I take it, must be the unusual circumstance back of Mr. Nehru's statement on birth control. Population and food facilities must balance.

The population of India is mainly Hindu, although there also are a good many Moslems. Both these religions forbid the use of contraceptives. However, perhaps the main opposition would lie in the argument that birth control is contrary to nature.

In India the idea of having large families is all important. Sons mean wealth. This was one reason through generations for child marriage—to get an early start in raising a family. The health minister, seeking a substitute for direct birth control, advocates raising the age limit for marriage of girls. Under the present law a girl may be married at fourteen.

He will also direct the questioning of President Truman's top military and diplomatic advisers on the same subject.

THREE FLIERS DIE IN CRASH

Harrisburg, April 23 (AP)—A twin-engine training bomber rammed into a rugged mountainside near here yesterday, killing three Ohio Air National Guardsmen.

The B-26 bomber, was on a routine training flight from Lockbourne Air Base, near Columbus, O., to Newcastle, D. C.

Lockbourne Air Base identified the victims as:

1st Lieut. William P. Phelan, Newark, Ohio, pilot.

Staff Sgt. Robert W. Howman, Ashland, Ohio.

Cpl. Thomas E. Wilcox, Dayton, Ohio.

The plane was attached to the 322nd Tow Target Flight station at Lockbourne field.

Eyewitnesses said the plane apparently rammed into the mist-shrouded mountain while its occupants were circling at low altitude seeking their bearings. The plane ploughed a deep furrow several yards in the thick underbrush before it exploded and burned. The crash occurred about eight miles northeast of here.

Littlestown BOY SCOUTS ON CAMPING TRIP

The following members of Littlestown Boy Scout Troop No. 84 went on a camping trip to the Narrows on Saturday and Sunday: Larry Snyder, James Sellman, Larry Jones, William Simons, Gary Keefe, Nevin Bowman, James Barnes, Paul Barnes, William Louey and James Hahn, accompanied by Edward B. Geiman, assistant scoutmaster. The trip was a reward for those scouts who participated in the regional first aid meeting at Gettysburg on March 30. The boys camped at Hemlock Inn in the Narrows. Games and fishing were enjoyed by the scouts.

The Rev. Harvey B. Simons, pastor of Centenary Methodist church, announced Sunday morning that the fourth quarterly conference of the local church will be held Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the church. The Rev. A. R. Turner, pastor of the First Methodist church, Hanover, will preside in place of the fourth district superintendent, who will be unable to attend.

The Littlestown Borough Council will hold its April meeting on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock in the office of the borough secretary, Roger J. Keefe, North Queen street.

The regular meeting of the Rotary club will be held Tuesday evening at 6:15 o'clock at Schott's hotel. Initiation of new members will be held in connection with the meeting.

Game On Tuesday
The boys' baseball team of the Littlestown Junior-Senior high school will oppose the Newville team at Newville on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. George Trump, Littlestown R. 1, will be hostess to the Tuck-a-Batch Sunday school class of St. John's Lutheran church for the April meeting on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Paul E. King and Mrs. Joseph Selby comprise the entertainment committee.

The monthly meeting of the Abigail Kammerer Missionary society of St. Paul's Lutheran church will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. James F. Spalding, along the Hanover-Littlestown road. Mrs. Charles E. Rabenstein will be the leader.

Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock the council of St. John's Lutheran church will hold its regular monthly meeting at the church.

The Littlestown Baseball team will practice each evening this week at 5:30 o'clock on the Littlestown Memorial field, as announced by the team manager, Marvin P. Breighner.

It was announced at the Sunday morning worship service at Redeemer's Evangelical and Reformed church that the sale of tickets for the 51st anniversary banquet is in charge of Miss Mary Jane Staley. The tickets are 91 cents apiece and anyone wishing to have a packet of them may secure them from Miss Staley. A banquet will be served to the men of the church by the women on Wednesday, May 23, and the men will serve the women on Thursday, May 24. Members are requested to bring only one guest to the banquet. The Rev. Dr. Charles E. Schaeffer, Philadelphia, will be the guest speaker at both affairs.

CAPT. COOK DECORATED
Camp Atterbury, Ind., April 23 (AP)—Capt. Robert W. Cook, 24, of Meadville, Pa., is the first Keystone Division man to be decorated since the Pennsylvania National Guard unit was reactivated last September. Cook received the soldier's medal Saturday and then joined his regimental commander, Lieut. Col. Adam J. Dreibleb, and Maj. Gen. Daniel B. Strickler, the 28th Division commander, in reviewing the Pennsylvania unit.

Served In WAC
In 1942 she joined the WAC and served at Salina, Kan., and Tucson, Ariz., before being sent overseas where she served in Australia, New Guinea and the Philippines. At one time she was attached to the armored forces of the Far East in the headquarters of General Douglas MacArthur. She was then in the intelligence corps. She was released from active duty at Fort Sheridan, Ill.

Later Mrs. Wallace attended the College of Commerce, University of Wyoming, School of Business Administration, where she completed the course. She then enrolled in the University of Wyoming law school and completed her first year and in the fall of 1948 she transferred to the University of Pennsylvania law school where she received her LL.B. in June, 1950. She passed the Pennsylvania bar exam last August and entered a clerkship in the law firm where she is now an associate member.

Miss Barton married Mr. Wallace, of Sheridan, Wyo., August 23, 1947. He completed his pre-legal studies at the University of Wyoming and is now enrolled at the University of Pennsylvania Dental college where he expected to complete his course in 1953, unless he is recalled to war service. He served in the Navy during World War II.

Washington, April 23 (AP)—House Republicans are gearing up a new economy drive aimed at saving tax money by trimming some half a million civilian employees off the federal payroll.
Rep. Jensen (R-Iowa), a leader in the move, told a reporter today that such a cut in the payroll should "effect savings of at least $1,000,000,000" during the fiscal year beginning July 1.
The plan appeared certain to gain the ears of some members of the tax-writing House Ways and Means committee. Rep. Richard M. Simpson (R-Pa.), a committee member, said yesterday a nationwide survey of businessmen indicated strong backing for a $5,000,000,000 cut in federal spending, as suggested by Senator Byrd (D-Va.).

CHICAGO AND MILWAUKEE TO GREET GENERAL

Chicago, April 23 (AP)—General MacArthur is coming to Chicago Thursday and the nation's second largest city is all set for a super welcome.

Soldier Field, the lake front open-air arena, was reserved yesterday for a mass civic reception Thursday night.

But the greeting will get underway in high style the moment the general's plane, "The Bataan," touches ground about noon at Midway airport. An official reception committee of 200 prominent citizens, including retired Generals Charles G. Dawes and Robert E. Wood, will be on hand.

Before heading for the downtown loop area and a formal parade, the general will be given military honors, including a 17-gun artillery salute by Fifth Army artillerymen, at the airport.

Expect Three Million
A crushing crowd of 3,000,000 — about 75 per cent of Chicago's population — is expected to take part in the mammoth celebration for the general, his wife, and their son, Arthur, 13.

To give the spectators room to move, most surface traffic will be detoured from the downtown area. The parade route winds from the near north side to the Bataan-Corregidor bridge, over the Chicago river, where the general will place a wreath, then through the Loop to the Stevens hotel where the general will spend the night.

Mayor Martin H. Kennelly said MacArthur has indicated he does not expect to make a formal speech in the ceremonies at Soldier field. However, the mayor said he "hoped the general would say a few words." The public reception in the 90-000-seat Soldier field starts at 8

8 p.m. The outdoor stadium can be stretched to seat almost an additional 30,000 with temporary bleachers. Officials said doors would open early in the day and that it would be "first come, first served."

Following the Chicago welcome, MacArthur is scheduled to go to Milwaukee Friday where he will be feted and given an honorary degree at Marquette university.

The general will travel to Milwaukee by automobile.

Milwaukee claims the general as a "favorite son." Although born in Arkansas, MacArthur spent his boyhood in Milwaukee. He has maintained legal residence at Milwaukee's Plankinton hotel.

OKAY JUDGE
Washington, April 23 (AP)—The Senate Judiciary committee today approved the nomination of William Alvah Stewart of Pittsburgh to be a federal district judge for Western Pennsylvania. Stewart, a Pittsburgh councilman and onetime Pittsburgh city solicitor, would succeed Nelson McVicar, who retired February 27 after 23 years on the bench.

New York, April 23 (AP)—Lewis W. Douglas, former ambassador to Great Britain, said today the United States and Britain need each other now far more than "at any time in their history."

"In between the two major sea of power—the U.S.S.R. in the east and the United States in the west—Britain represents the last bastion of strength between the Iron Curtain and our own shores," Douglas said. He spoke at the annual luncheon of the Associated Press worldwide news gathering cooperative.
